Dear Friends,

As we reflect on the past few months of ministry, we are overwhelmed by the goodness of the Lord and the faithful support of friends like you. Your partnership allows us to walk alongside families in their most vulnerable moments, and we do not take that privilege lightly.

We serve a God who is deeply invested in the restoration of relationships, and it is our joy to be ambassadors of His grace in the homes and hearts of those He brings our way.

We are encouraged by the knowledge that our radio outreach is crossing borders, bringing the hope of a grace-centered home to listeners throughout the United Kingdom each week. Our radio broadcasts in the UK are a unique door the Lord has opened to us through TWR, and we have been broadcasting now with them for over twenty years. Please pray that these airwaves would carry hope into living rooms and cars, sparking renewal in weary marriages and individual lives.

Closer to home, our hearts are full as we continue to teach regularly through our home church. Between Sunday School sessions and midweek home Bible studies, we are constantly challenged and encouraged by the hunger for God's Word within our local community. It is a blessing to grow alongside our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Family News: Beka in Guam

Many of you have asked about our daughter, Beka, and we have an update to share. She recently committed to another two-year term, dedicated to teaching and mentoring students in a Christian environment. We ask for your prayers for Beka—that she would be a light in the classroom and that the seeds of the Gospel she plants would bear much fruit in the lives of her students.

Matters for Prayer

•Wisdom in Counseling: We frequently find ourselves in complex counseling and mentoring situations. Please pray for the Lord's supernatural wisdom and deep compassion as we sit with individuals and families. We want to speak truth that heals and provides a path forward.

•The Power of the Word: Pray that the truth of God's Word would not just be something we teach, but something that permeates every area of our own lives. We desire for it to dictate our interactions with one another and every piece of counsel we offer.

•Guarding Our Own Home: We are acutely aware that we cannot lead others where we aren't willing to go ourselves. Pray that we would live out the grace-based marriage we teach. Pray for the Lord's protection over our own union and that we would be intentional in keeping God first, maintaining a servant's heart toward one another.

•An Eternal Perspective: In the busyness of ministry, it is easy to focus on the immediate. Pray that we would keep our eyes on the horizon of eternity—that our lives and this ministry would leave a lasting impact for the Kingdom of God.

•Modeling for the Next Generation: Finally, pray that we would be a clear and consistent example of a Godly marriage to our own children, showing them the beauty of a life surrendered to Christ.

Thank you for being part of our team. We are honored to serve the Lord alongside you.

Your partners in the Gospel,
