THE KINGS' QUEST

Merry Christmas to you, dear friends and family! 🌟 What PEACE and JOY we have as we celebrate our Savior's birth. 🙌 We pray you also know the Savior of the world and experience PEACE and JOY in Him! 🙏

Sadly, many people do not know this Joy that we celebrate during this season. We consider it an awesome blessing and responsibility to serve as full-time missionaries, sharing Christ's love and message of salvation in the Dominican Republic and beyond. We desire to see hearts filled with Joy, lives changed by Jesus! We continue to dream with the Lord, asking for His guidance and Divine connections and partnerships for Kingdom expansion - "To Know Him and Make Him Known!"

2024 has brought much change to our family. In May we welcomed Maria Esther into our household - for as long as the Lord desires - and in June we added Katelyn and Kiana into our family with plans to adopt, Lord willing. The past six months with our littles have been fun and delightful and also some of the most challenging we have experienced. The Lord is faithful and we believe He will bring to completion this journey He has us on, also bringing complete healing to their hearts and minds. Now we enter another great transition in the family as yesterday we sent our dear Cortney to PA for a few days before heading to Madison, Wisconsin where she will attend YWAM's Discipleship Training School beginning January 4 - June 7, 2025.

We ask for your continued prayers for our family as we head into 2025. Through the changes, the Lord is our strength and great is His faithfulness! We are excited for the plans He has for us and the ministry as we see our 2025 agenda already includes several teams, partnership with local pastors and churches, girls' clubs, and children's ministry through Castillo Kids Powerhouse and our local church. Thank you for being a part of it all through your prayers and financial support.

We love you and pray the Lord's blessings over you and your family.

For His glory, Mack, Lori, and family
