

GOOD SAMARITAN CHILDREN'S HOME

"A Safe Place We Call Home"

Merry Christmas from the Good Samaritan Children's Home!

Thank you for helping us provide "A safe place we call home" for orphaned, abandoned, and abused children here in the Dominican Republic. The Lord has blessed us in many ways and one of those ways is by connecting us to you. Thank you! Thank you to every person who has prayed, given, served, and shared about what God is doing here in this beautiful family. May God bless you all greatly in return! We pray you have a wonderful Christmas season and prosperous 2023, full of the love, joy, and peace that our Savior came to bring.

We (the King family) recently spent a long weekend with the Good Samaritan family, enjoying some Christmas festivities like making ornaments, decorating the tree, and sharing a delicious Christmas meal. We had so much fun celebrating this special time of year! The children have adapted well to the vigorous school routine of early mornings, long days of classes, rest time followed by a little play time, dinner, and then early to bed in order to start well again the next day. They are content and we are so thankful they are in a safe place to heal. Here's a few pictures of our weekend as we made some Christmas memories together.

The newest children that joined the Good Samaritan family this year are these five adorable brothers and sisters (left in red frame). My, how their worlds have changed this year! They came to us a few months ago after a very difficult past, but are now experiencing the love of God and of family. They have a bright future ahead of them now! Though they are tiny for their age, they are growing fast with a consistent diet of nourishing food, safety, and love.

All of the children are super excited about our up-coming family camp at the beginning of January! They've been pestering their parents and aunts about it for months now, continually asking how many days until camp. haha Getting away from home is a rare thing for the children in this extra large family. We are thankful for this opportunity to take them away from home to a place where they can run freely, explore nature, and experience new things. Big thanks to those who gave special offerings to make this family camp possible! Please pray for a wonderful time of family-fun, encouragement, and unity January 4-6.

Once again we thank you for your ongoing support and wish you a very Merry and Blessed Christmas! The greeting below is sent to you by Ego, director and avid bird lover. :) With love,
Mack, Lori, Cortney, Kyla, and Cami King
