

THE KINGS' QUEST

"To Know Him and to Make Him Known"

Beautiful, Messy, Holy Work

We're still here! It's been a full and amazing start to the year. God is so good and you as friends and supporters are such a blessing. Thank you! Our home of 9 is a very busy place as we live and do ministry together. I recently described our ministry as beautiful, messy, holy work. It's beautiful seeing God working in so many ways. It's messy as we work and walk with so many people, in various areas of ministry and life, all with their own challenges and needs. And its holy work because it's God's work! We are honored to be a part of these lives and witness what He is doing. So whether you are in the beauty or in the mess at the moment, remember, when it's for the Kingdom, you are doing holy work. The Lord is faithful and powerful and will help you. What a privilege to partner with Him in His work!

In March we once again helped with our church's youth camp, which partners with our pastors' school as well. Youth camp is always full of loud and crazy fun leading up to some powerful moments in His Presence together. God is always faithful and uses our efforts to draw youth to Him in new ways.

The Go and Do Likewise goat project continues to grow. In April we hosted Blaine (project founder) and Dan and Brenda Auker, who work closely with this ministry. We visited many of the 22 communities in the program. Pastor Enol and his wife, Mayra, have been doing a great job following up and ministering to the 300+ families that are in or have graduated from this project. The most exciting part of the week was praying in homes, seeing several accept Jesus as Savior, and meeting the community where Pastor Enol began a discipleship Bible study for new converts.

In March a youth team from Belleville area visited to love on and minister with us at the Good Samaritan Children's Home. This group taught Bible lessons twice a day, led fun activities, and played and loved a lot. God bless you, Mountain View Chapel! Thank you for your investment in the lives of our precious children at Good Samaritan.

Another 12 week cycle of our Saturday children's outreach Castillo Kids Powerhouse began in February and finished in early May. An average of 125 kids attended every week to learn new skills and study the Word of God with the theme "Heroes of the Faith." Every week we studied a different character from the Bible along with a character trait that we should also grow in and put into practice. We always celebrate and take a big, deep breath after we finish with the last day. It is a lot of work, but it is holy work. This was our 8th cycle and, all glory to God, we can say that it has been very fruitful. Powerhouse has connected hundreds of kids, and their families, to the church. We close out the cycle by inviting all the children and their family to our Sunday worship service. Each class has a part of the program and the Word of God is shared with all. The Saturday classes can be messy, but the joy in seeing the church full of new faces... this is so beautiful!
