Dear Friends,

We want to say "Thank You" for standing with us, both for your financial support and for your prayers on our behalf this past year.

As we look back, we are grateful and excited to share with you what God has been through our ministry.

DECLARING HIS GLORY

By God's grace we've been able to counsel and mentor many individuals and families over the last twelve months – both online and in our home/office. We endeavor to offer hope and encouragement in situations that often seem hopeless and out of control.

We've had the opportunity to speak at many different churches, mostly in our local area of South-Central Pennsylvania. When he is not speaking elsewhere, Morris also teaches regularly at the Adult Bible Fellowship class at our home church, and Audrey teaches a women's Bible study in our home.

Our daily radio program continues to be broadcast throughout the UK by Trans World Radio. They have been broadcasting our radio program for almost twenty years. These are all opportunities that the Lord gives us to speak of His goodness and faithfulness.

STILL LEARNING

We are challenged to keep growing and learning for our own spiritual health, and to be better able to help others.

The law of sowing and reaping extends to the marriage relationship: we only get out of it from what we are willing to invest into it. If we are not intentionally investing in our marriage on a regular basis, it's unlikely that we will thrive and grow in our relationship together.

For that reason, we will be attending two different marriage conferences in the next few weeks, as well as teaching and leading a marriage conference in the spring.

Because of the growing number of individuals struggling with anxiety, depression, and loneliness, we are continuing our education in mental health from a Biblical perspective and have enrolled in three online courses with a Biblical counseling ministry.

HE IS FAITHFUL

So many Christians speak despairingly of the day and time we live in, yet we are convinced that God is at work and wants to show Himself strong on our behalf (2 Chronicles 16:9). We want to speak up for Him and give Him all the glory. In these uncertain days, we have a sure hope in Jesus Christ and in His Word. We know who holds the future and we can trust in Him, our Sovereign Lord.

We recently reflected on these 37 years of marriage and ministry together, that despite our shortcomings, the Lord has never failed us once. He hasn't given up on us, so we are excited about the future and what lies ahead. These are exciting days of opportunity.

Please continue to pray that our daily radio program, counseling and speaking opportunities would make a difference for lives and families in eternity! We are grateful for your partnership in the Gospel.

Through Christ Our Lord,

*Morris
